"Bone and Dust? 14:14"

Our celebrated brother Job, was first asked the ominous question; pled by all men: "When a man dies; will he live again:" Job 14:14

Or, will man infinitely and simply be, "Bone & Dust"?

The Hebrew Biblical poets cried out again and again that our death is unimaginable and inescapable. Further, they assured us that "... no man can redeem his brother..." Hebrew scholar, Dr. Moffatt, translates this: "None can buy himself off. No one can purchase for any price from God; Life that will be endless"

Think on this! From the split second you left the birth canal and sucked in your very first breath; you began to die.

I know, I know... Who wants to think about that? We want to think about our houses, our cars, our health, our kids, our weight loss, our banks, our teams, our jobs, our vacations, often our 401k's.

Even myself... A Christian missionary-evangelist for decades... When I see a local TV commercial for a funeral business showing it's 'vaunted beautiful' coffins... I change the channel! The Grim Reaper brings catastrophe and cataclysm... not beauty. Have you ever experienced a beatific, captivating funeral home? Never?

When Charles the Great's (Charlemagne) French tomb was opened after 1200 years not long ago... all that they found was a golden crown laying amidst 'bones and dust'.

The Taj Mahal entombs the remains of a 'glorious' Mogul Emperor and his wife. The resplendent building however, outlived its occupants by centuries.

Aristotle and Shakespeare both wrote that they had 'immortal longings'... The Egyptian kings built their pyramids to that very end.

The GlobeWorks International affiliated ministers, evangelists, church planters... Each year offer a clear proposition to thousands of black, brown, yellow, and white earth pilgrims. It is this:

In answer to Job's 14:14 omnipresent question: "When a man dies; will he live gain?" ...

We publicly preach-teach-affirm-even debate, "YES! A man will"... But ONLY if certain Bible-vetted conditions are met:

First: Admit your sins to God. You are 100% unworthy of salvation.

Second: Believe and Receive in prayer your crucified Sin Bearer, The Holy Spirit of Jesus Christ.

Third: Show evidence of your genuine Faith in Christ by your changed life of repentance and good works.

Since more and more people globally, will not 'GO' to church... our GlobeWorks' ministers, GO to them. And we bring and train more and more teams of North Americans, Asians, Africans, and Europeans from our contact churches to GO with us.

GlobeWorks

Go where?.... To the streets, malls, parks, stadiums, college campuses, factories, schools, bus stops, beach resorts, slums, airports, doorways, military bases... And of course, church preaching too when and where we are invited.

Here you meet two more of our GlobeWorks International Affiliates in which many of you invest your moneys.

Rev. Alexey & Tonya Kolomiytsev

Both born in The Soviet Union and both their fathers imprisoned in Siberian concentration camps for their Faith; Alexey and Tanya are 20 year allies of GW Director Dale Cutlip and GlobeWorks.

Through his dying mother's prayers, Alexey became a Christian at 13 years of age. Ordained as a teenager into Russian Evangelical church music ministries and then reaching Siberian labor camps... Some 23 years ago Alexey and Tanya received theological education visas to study in America... To complete their BA & 2 M.Div degrees.

Today in 2018, Alexey is in constant demand throughout the world as a Bible conference speaker. He works from Australia to Europe and throughout the Russian speaking world. There are over 1700 of Alexey's messages on his website: www.slovo.org (recognized by web experts as "THE" most influential website among Russians today.)

Rev. Kolomiytsev pastors a church plant of over 2000 members near Portland, Oregon; and was a main speaker at the 500th Anniversary Lutheran Services of the Protestant Reformation in Wittenburg, Germany in 2017.

Dr. Manuel & Sandra Zarate

This GlobeWorks' missionary, philosopher, author, and evangelist lectures and preaches worldwide. Manuel and Sandra, both from the villages of the Amazonian jungle area of Colombia completed their educations in North America at Moody Bible College; of Chicago; Biola, of Los Angeles, and his Ph.D. at Regent University of Virginia.

Prior to coming to GlobeWorks... Dr. Zarate served for 5 years as a global lecturer and event leader with Ravi Zacharias Ministries; the Billy Graham Association and Campus Crusade (CRU) and then, spent 8 years planting a thriving 350 member church in Bogota, Colombia. Manuel and Sandra have 3 college age sons.

His passion as an evangelist-church planter is to create strong Christian leaders and thinkers into the 21st Century. He does this through evangelistic church and youth conference preaching and LifeFocus Seminars worldwide.

Are your moneys well invested and proven fruitful at GlobeWorks?
I think so... and many, many agree.

Most Sincerely and Gratefully,,
