40 year old... lives in an American ghetto... not married... no relatives... abandoned by his mother as a child... a menial laborer and car washer at $10 per hour... his entire life, a human tragedy...

Christ put a sincere love in my heart for this stranger who was moving some heavy furniture for us last Saturday. When done, I took Al and his partner to a huge Mexican luncheon... Fed them... And spoke of Jesus' death in Al's place for Al's many sins; and of believing on and receiving the Spirit of God in prayer into Al's heart and soul.

One hour later, after I shared my testimony of a highly immoral and godless life, full of thievery, and vice as a young man, my near death experience by a jet crash that left 83 dead and me alive... only to be "born again" 6 years later at 25 years old... holding hands in the street with my arm around him; Al removed his hat, bowed his head and prayed, "Oh, God... I am a sinner. I am guilty. I believe You died on the cross in my place for my sins. Come into my heart, Lord Jesus... Please forgive me and make me the kind of man You want me to be. I pray sincerely... In Jesus' name, Amen."

As I stood with Al embracing him and instructing him a bit in daily Bible reading, repentance, church attendance, Baptism as a New Life in Christ follower, and Al's pending follow-up by a Christian friend and businessman I led to Jesus 30 years ago... Today, this man is a holy, spiritual man, husband, and father, and discipler of new converts.

Suddenly, Al broke into the biggest smile (literally) with his "Gold Teeth" gleaming.

30 years old... Jewish attorney living in the wealthiest suburb of our state... married with baby on the way... skeptic, but wanted very much to question me as to "Why I believe Jesus is the Jewish Messiah & Savior." Jew first?... The young Hebrew lawyer is trying to find personal peace through Hindu meditation sessions with a local agnostic surgeon.

As we parted after a 3 hour dinner together a few weeks ago; the young Jew hugged me, an old Jew... And said, 'Please may we meet together again to reason and speak? I am open to what you said tonight... I need time.'

Missionaries flying away to some far-off place of strange language and culture and color; who do not challenge their own countrymen in streets, alleys, businesses, homes, gas stations, supermarkets, college campuses, malls, airports, restaurants... Seem a contradiction and rather shameful to me.

One of the chief investor board members of GlobeWorks had me in his office this week for counsel and prayer. He reminded me faithfully of his recent conversation with another board member at which he told the other... "Remember, brother, our ministry is not 'Dale Cutlip Works', it is: GlobeWorks - Anywhere and Everywhere. True.

The 21st Annual Board and wives and guest... Dinner meeting will be held April 25th, at our central office board room for some 45 members and guests from 6 states and China and England.

□ Dr. Allen Baker had just published a tri-fold evangelism tract to be used in US; Africa; and India by our soul winners entitled: "The Lake of Fire: What's it Like? Who Goes There and Why?"

□ GWI's affiliate 20-year missionary to British Islamic mosque members, Rev. Michael Jones, is this month in Italy invited to train 50 of the FIRST PROTESTANT ITALIANS who are Muslim street evangelists, as far as is known... in history. Mike will be personally reporting to our Board dinner on April 25th.

□ GWI affiliate missionary, Rev. Boniface Maina in Mombassa, Kenya reports this week of 8 new converts though Kiwengea marketplace street evangelism preaching.

□ GWI affiliate, Dr. Jeyaraj Dasan, Director of our 20 street evangelists in Hyderabad, India reports this week that our GWI supported team... "In 104 degree heat... 1) 4 new converts took baptism in Motiganapur village. 2) 5 young Indian teenagers are going to Bible college. 3) Ground breaking for new GlobeWorks' built village church was on March 23rd. 4) In March, 2019; the GWI India evangelists shared the Gospel with 1,085 Hindu people in street preaching.

In the annals of Church History, the street evangelists (like Dr. Billy Graham) have had a massive Kingdom impact... St. Paul in Asia; St. Thomas in India; John Wesley; George Whitfield; John Wycliffe's Lollards; Christmas Evans; Lorenzo Dow; Jacob Gruber; Madame Guyon, Catherine Booth... so many.

Perhaps the Christian street evangelist I admire most would be Rev. Robert Flockhart of Scotland... Everyday for 43 years in all weather and amid mockings, beatings, cursings, and insulting blasphemies. This brave, almost angelic man, never stopped preaching Christ. Even when tottering to his grave; this old soldier kept to his post...

GlobeWorks' missionary evangelists intend to follow in the noble order of such men and women. The need for hundreds more to work in San Francisco, Tokyo, Moscow, New York, Las Vegas, London.

Badgering God's people for moneys or legacies or properties has never been the GlobeWorks' way. It never will be. Should Dale Cutlip suddenly disappear from earth, our GWI Board have made arrangements for continuation, permanence and leadership here within the Will of God.

GWI remains in the black fiscally. We have never been in the red. GWI has a good rating with Charitywatch.com; and approximately 85% of every dollar sent in by Christ's people in 2019 is utilized for ministry. 15% for Administration costs.
